

American Indian Alaska Native Tourism Association

Emerson Vallo, President
Board of Directors

AIANTA
American Indian Alaska Native
Tourism Association

About AIANTA

AIANTA's Mission

To define, introduce, grow and sustain American Indian, Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian tourism that honors traditions and values.

About AIANTA

- AIANTA works on behalf of all 573 federally recognized tribes and state recognized tribes.
- The only organization specifically dedicated to advancing Indian Country tourism across the United States.
- AIANTA serves as the voice and resource for tribes and tribal organizations engaged in cultural tourism.
- AIANTA helps tribes develop, sustain, and grow tourism destinations through technical assistance, training and educational resources.

International Participation

- Peru
- Australia
- China
- England
- Germany
- Italy

AIANTA – ITAC, Memorandum of Understanding

- Enhance further collaboration opportunities between AIANTA and ITAC.
- Launch and sustain cross-border tourism initiatives to broaden the exposure and geographical reach
- Enrich understanding, education and cultural exchange among members of AIANTA and ITAC
- Offer business development and cultural education opportunities
- Support the long term economic viability of tribal communities
- Jointly increase tourism Native American and Canada Indigenous tourism.

AIANTA – ITAC, Memorandum of Understanding

AIANTA and ITAC consider tribal tourism, recreation and heritage resources to be economic and cultural assets that will increase in value with additional cooperation and coordination between our organizations.

Dawa'ee
Thank You!

American Indian Alaska Native Tourism Association
Email: ERV0110@gmail.com

